ADA REQUIREMENTS FOR BUS & DEMAND RESPONSIVE SERVICES

Thursday, June 29 – 9am to 3pm - $299 per participant
107 Arrow Road, Greensboro, NC 27409

This training will review all of the elements required by the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) in providing fully accessible Bus and Demand Responsive (ADA Paratransit, Dial-A-Ride, Deviated Fixed Route, Non-Profit) services to people with disabilities. The content is designed for all types of transportation professionals (City, transit agencies, contractors, consultants, Human Services agencies). Managers, Planners, Trainers, Road Supervisors, Dispatchers and Bus Operators are recommended to attend.

Hosted by Piedmont Authority for Regional Transportation (PART)

CREATING EFFECTIVE ADA POLICIES & PROCEDURES

Monday, June 26 – 9am to 12noon - $199 per participant
4600 Emperor Blvd., Suite 100, Durham, NC 27703

This training provides best practices for enhancing and creating ADA-related operating policies and procedures for the delivery of accessible public transit services to people with disabilities. A variety of approaches to documenting issues involving riders with disabilities in order to reduce agency liability will also be discussed. Hosted by GoTriangle

ADA PARATRANSIT ELIGIBILITY DETERMINATION

Monday, June 26 – 1pm to 4pm – $199 per participant
4600 Emperor Blvd., Suite 100, Durham, NC 27703

This training will review the ADA's requirements for a "strict" ADA Paratransit eligibility determination process. Best practices for application content, telephone and in-person eligibility approaches, and the appeals process will be discussed. Hosted by GoTriangle
